

“The Thinking Body The Feeling Mind®”

Before & Beyond Yoga

Deepen and elevate your practice. Work on breath, alignment, balance & inversion postures. Add creative and challenging movement sequences to your practice. Add theoretical & conceptual information to resolve body injury issues and to enhance technique. Receive credit hours toward certifications.

Class begins with a basic movement and breathing warm-up, then moves into an exploration of floor work, sitting and standing Asanas and moving sequences that include balances and inversions.

“The Thinking Body—The Feeling Mind®”

This technique uses yoga, ancient and modern dance, and meditation to help people deal with stress, dis-ease, physical/emotional and spiritual self development. The teaching promotes optimum human performance, possibility and well-being.

TBFM® embraces all cultures, generations, body types and shapes. It is inclusive of everyone from the disabled to professional dancers, actors and athletes. Students have been accepted into Alvin Ailey II, Cirque du Soleil, Juilliard and Cal Arts. Lack also trains and certifies Yoga Teachers and Movement/Yoga Therapists. She is on faculty with Yoga Therapy RX programs at Loyola Marymount University. The technique is practiced and taught at her studio in Los Angeles and throughout the United States as well as parts of Latin America, Europe, the Middle East and Asia.”

Immersion Experience
In the Pines of Idyllwild

“The Thinking Body—The Feeling Mind®” develops the basic human impulses of movement and breath that are profound pathways into healing, creativity and spirit. TBFM® has been recognized alongside Pilates, Feldenkrais, Bartenieff and Alexander Technique as a contemporary movement training/healing method. The technique has been featured in an LA Yoga article “Symposium on Yoga Therapy and Research” by Felicia M. Tomasko and in Backstage Magazine’s article “Performer, Heal Thyself” by Lisa Jo Sagolla.

LINDA LACK, Ph.D., widely respected educator, movement analyst/therapist, dance ritualist, body-based researcher, and international lecturer, has spent 40 years developing The Thinking Body—The Feeling Mind®.

Lack has been a presenter/lecturer/performer in wonderfully diverse communities: The Congress for Research in Dance, The International Association of Yoga Therapists, SUNY Purchase Dance Department, American Association of Dance Therapy, University Hospital and Research Center for Health, Bogota, Colombia, Symposium on Yoga Therapy and Research.

Lack trains and certifies Yoga/Movement Therapists, Professional Dancers and Actors, Yoga Teachers, and anyone wanting a better “ride” in body.

She has been funded and acknowledged by The Rockefeller Foundation, The National Endowment for the Arts, The California Arts Council, Samadha International Healing Awards, The Los Angeles Area Dance Alliance Awards for Innovative Choreography, and LACE award in the category of Spirituality for her significant contribution to spiritual growth and well being in the Los Angeles community.
